CLICKBANK: AFFILIATE MARKETING ON STEROIDS

ONE OF THE OLDEST AND MOST TRUSTED AFFILIATE MARKETING NETWORKS

Are you getting the most out of your affiliate marketing efforts? You've mastered paid search, spent the time to learn effective SEO strategies, built targeted landing pages, and know what products appeal to your visitors. You're making steady progress, but the low commission rates and monthly payments of most affiliate networks will only get you so far. For explosive growth and profitability, you need ClickBank.

ClickBank (www.ClickBank.com) – the world's largest online retailer and affiliate network for downloadable digital products – has all the tools in one place to help you earn what you've been dreaming about.

Don't take our word for it, in a 2007 survey 93 percent of ClickBank affiliates said they would recommend the company to others. Here's why:

NO-HASSLE COMMISSION PAYMENTS

You have to get paid – and paid on time – or you are out of business.

ClickBank, unlike other affiliate networks, takes the guesswork out of payments. We pay accurately and on-time by check or direct deposit. In fact, since ClickBank started in 1998, the company has never missed making an affiliate payment. That's why automatic commission payments are one of our most popular features. Our affiliates tell us time and again that payments arrive "like clockwork."

Also, ClickBank doesn't require individual contracts for each product or product line – as others do – because it is a major headache and creates costly time delays. This means that you can promote any product right away, with no waiting for approval from the merchant, and you get paid sooner since your earnings from individual merchants are all pooled together.

MORE PRODUCTS, BETTER CONVERSION RATES

You've developed a solid marketing strategy that generates a lot of traffic. Now you need a great selection of products to convert that traffic into serious profits.

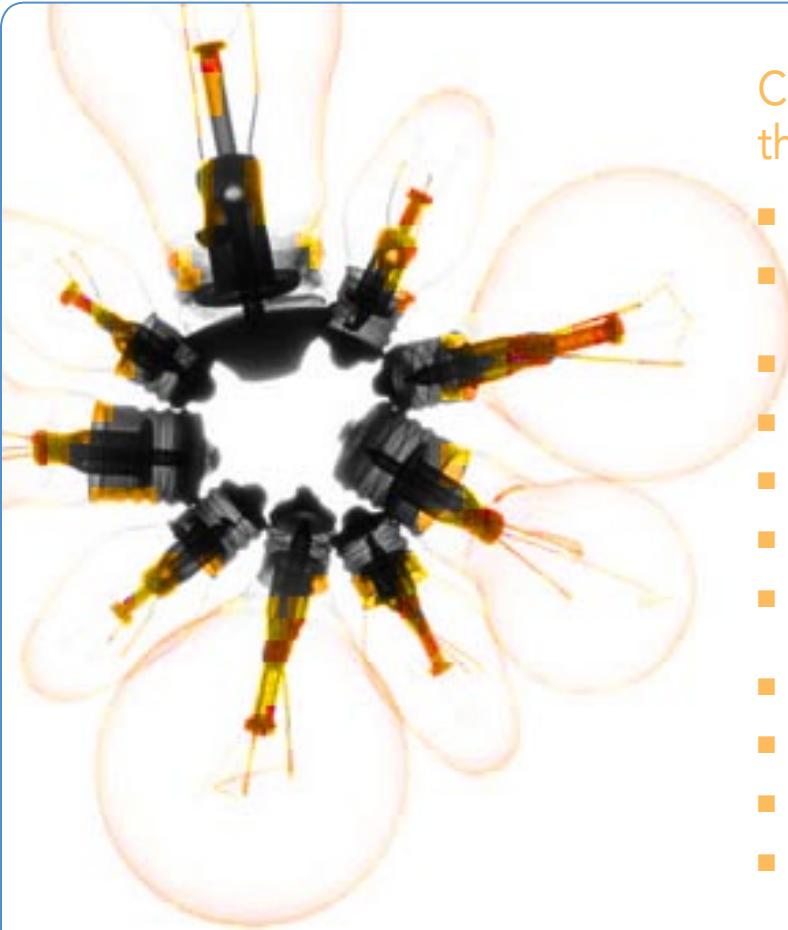

With 35,000 unique digitally downloadable products from 12,000 merchants, ClickBank has the products that appeal across demographics and niche audiences. Our deep Marketplace means that you have more products to choose from and our better conversion rates increase your revenue.

RECURRING BILLING COMMISSIONS

One-time sales are great. Getting paid over and over and over is better.

ClickBank offers a way to make money consistently and easily – through recurring billing. Many merchants are now offering products, such as newsletters or subscriptions, that are delivered on a regular schedule. The customer signs up for their credit card or PayPal account to be automatically billed each time – meaning you get your commissions each time the customer is re-billed.

It's the easiest way to keep earning money long after the sale is made, leaving you more time to focus on driving new sales.
